

Subject:  user: "Mrs Tan"
Class:  Log Out
Video:  Change Password
Admin

view: mine / all    Mine ▶ Teachers ▶ Students ▶

Annotations timeline showing orange triangles at various points along a progress bar with markers at 25%, 50%, and 75%.

Trends    search     by content  author  tag  auto-search

Let's Discuss and Learn Together!

Mrs Tan - July 17:

The frequent movement of people in and out of Singapore is inevitable as a result of our open society. How can we ensure social harmony when there are frequent new faces in our neighbourhood?

Reply View/Edit

- July 18:

We can try to tell them about Singapore's unique cultures/habits so they would understand Singaporeans better and often not getting into misunderstandings. With lesser conflicts, there will be peace between other nationality and Singaporeans, securing social harmony.

Reply View/Edit

- July 18:

be more understanding that people may have different norms in their own country since every country is different.

Reply View/Edit

- July 18:

I think that in short term interactions, we can just be more understanding towards them and try to ignore the problem by holding in our feelings. In the long run, i think that Singaporeans should question the foreigners and learn a little more about their culture so as to understand where they are coming from and thus

Add General Comment +

COVAA

Collaborative Video Annotation and Learning Analytics